

IMPORTANT INFORMATION – Sanitary Crisis COVID-19

Please be informed that all information sessions, citizenship training courses as well as the orientation day of your Welcome and integration contract (CAI) are postponed due to the ongoing sanitary crisis.

We will contact all persons concerned in due course and keep them informed about the relaunch of the different events and activities. It is currently not possible to arrange new appointments nor to (re-)register for CAI training sessions or events.

The CAI team is available in case of any questions or concerns. You can reach us by email cai@integration.etat.lu or phone 8002 6006 (toll free number).

Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Please consult the website of the government www.covid19.lu for useful information regarding the coronavirus, including preventive measures that are to be respected.
